ATTENTION: Make-Over Volunteers Needed

We are on the lookout for a "few good women" ... "good" meaning willing to give us a helping hand. We would like to offer a make-over to at least one lucky gal, but need someone who works in cosmetology or cosmetic sales, to step forward. If you can help, please call Jo Ann Walton.

God's Language Of Love

Excitement and anticipation are in the air as we wait patiently for November to arrive ... still lots of last minute ends to tie up and details to iron out. Nevertheless, we are really looking forward to the 2008 NCBSA Conference. Our organization will be blessed three-fold this year with Dr. Gary Chapman as our keynote speaker on Monday and Tuesday, Haven Parrott on Wednesday, and a "surprise" guest to conclude our time together. Gary Chapman, PhD, is director of Marriage and Family Life Consultants, Inc. He is author of 25 books, including the N.Y. Times bestseller, The Five Love Languages, which has been translated in 35 languages with additional versions for men, children, teenagers, and singles. Other titles include The Five Languages of Apology, Desperate Marriages, and Anger: Handling a Powerful Emotion in a Healthy Way. Dr. Chapman leads marriage seminars nationally and internationally. His nationally-syndicated radio program, A Love Language Minute, airs daily on more than 100 stations.

Since Dr. Chapman is the author of the world-renowned book, The Five Love Languages and many other books on communicating love, we are sure to come away with not only the head knowledge of what God's love looks and sounds like, but with "changed hearts" in being motivated to make love a way of life in our homes and workplaces. Of course, Haven is one of our all-time favorite "girlfriends" and brings all her creative gifts and talent to the stage to help us laugh and learn.

So, let me remind you to mail in your breakout session schedule, along with your registration and deposit ASAP. Rooms are filling up quickly and we don't want you to miss out on this great conference! Until then, may we each prepare our hearts and minds with prayer and meditation on our focal scripture passage.

- Jo Ann Walton

First-Timers' Welcome & Orientation

Is this your first time to attend a NCBSA conference? Be sure to sign up for the First-Timers' Orientation (Monday, 2:00 p.m.), led by Grace Hodge, Ardmore Baptist.

Got Questions?

Come join us and get helpful hints for making the most of your 2008 conference experience.

We look forward to meeting YOU!

Evaluations & Endowment Fund

We know you have heard this before, but it really is true. The Executive Committee needs to hear from you to assist them in next year's conference planning. To make it more convenient this year, we plan to allow you enough time during General Session for completing your conference evaluations. The layout has been revamped and is now primarily multiple choice.

At the same time, you will also receive a special offering envelope for the Betty Walker Endowment Fund. This fund is comprised of monetary gifts that "keep on giving" to our organization. Envelopes will be distributed just as a reminder that we, as NCBSA members, have the opportunity to give back to this great organization, any time of the year.

We Need Your Help

Thank you to all those who have already offered their assistance. We are still in need of helpers to "wo-man" the sale tables. Please call Angela Cockerham (336-835-3401) to volunteer an hour of your time for any of the following:

NC Baptist Secretaries Conference Caraway; November 3 - 5

- ◆ Dr. Chapman's Book Table
- ◆ NCBSA Sale Table
- ◆ Greeters for First-Timers

NC Baptist State Convention Greensboro Coliseum; November 10 - 12

- ◆ NCBSA Booth

Parrott, The Potter, and Furr

We are thrilled that three of our favorite breakout leaders will be joining us again in November. Because Dr. Chapman will only be able to be with us on Monday and Tuesday, we have something special planned for Wednesday's general session. Haven Parrott, founder of Himfluence, has graciously accepted to bring us God's message in a unique and dramatic way. Who knows, she may lead us down some paths we have never taken before. Rodney Stilwell, the Potter and Senior Chaplain of Forsyth Jail and Prison Ministries will once again lead us into the presence of Christ through the medium of clay and God's timeless message. And last, but not least, is Bobbie Furr, our Financial Guru Extraordinaire! These are just a few of the great breakout leaders planned for our conference. On page 6, circle your selections (one per time slot) and mail the schedule along with your registration form to Cathy Hawkins. Don't forget to keep a copy for future reference.

- Linda Lunsford

NCBSA Online Devotional

Have you visited our Web site lately and noticed the new devotional page? Do you have a few inspirational words to share? You never know how God will use them to encourage and make a difference in someone's day. Please submit your entries (preferably an attached Word document) to llunsford@ardmorebaptist.org.

Please Take Note:

Check-in begins – 12 noon, November 3
First General Session starting time – 3:00 p.m.

Door Prizes

When it comes to door prizes, we all love to hear our name called. We encourage each association to furnish at least (2) two gifts and ...

Who knows? We just might call your name!!

A Time to Talk ... And A Time To Be Silent

Café Chatter & Prayer Room

In light of the two main reasons NCBSA members attend the conference year after year, we are making available this year, the following:

Café Chatter ~ a relaxing setting where one can drop in for relaxation or refreshment from beverage and friends.

Prayer Room ~ a sanctuary of quiet where one can draw away from the hustle and bustle to visit with the Father.

Feel free to drop in at either location anytime during the conference, except during breakout session times.

Tuesday Afternoon "Extras"

Dr. Kerry Reeves & Johnny Ross

On Tuesday afternoon, both of these gentlemen will be available for these "bonus" sessions:

Dr. Kerry Reeves ~ One-on-one consults – need some extra advise for your personal eating, exercise, or devotional plan?

Johnny Ross ~ Johnny will be offering this *bonus breakout session regarding how to make the most of your investments. He will also be available for one-on-one consults throughout the day.

No appointment is necessary. *If you plan to attend the bonus breakout session, please note it on your schedule.

Thank You For Your Service

2008 Nominating Committee:

Betty Pleasant, Baptist State Convention of NC
Frances Stone, Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

2008 Advisory Committee:

Darlene Lambert, First Baptist, Hendersonville
Teresa Almond, Glorietta Baptist, Concord
Evva Spurgeon, Liberty Association, Thomasville

Monday Night Fun Time

Get Ready ... Get Set ... GO!

This year we're having a Secretaries' Scavenger Hunt during our Monday night Fun Time. This will be an opportunity for each person to test and develop their team playing skills. After dividing into groups, each team will receive a list of the items to be located. Since there will be a limited amount of time allotted to find these items, you will have to put your heads together and work as a team to be successful.

Although the team who brings back the most items wins the prize, everyone will come away from this fun event a winner, just by having had a good time and making new friends.

Let us hear from you!

Missions Emphasis

NC School for the Deaf is our missions emphasis this year. In keeping with our theme "God's Language of Love", we realize that God's love is experienced through many different avenues. If we are unable to hear audibly with our ears, then we have to listen in other ways. Our prayer is that the School for the Deaf can "hear" God's language of love through our offering at the November conference. They will see our smiles, feel our hugs, and will be given opportunities through our gifts. We are blessed this year to have Ruth Jones present at the conference as a spokesperson for the school. Hopefully some of the students, who may have been born deaf or have experienced a hearing loss, will also be present. Let us give generously so that these children can live as normal a life as possible. But most of all let them see/hear God's love through our support.

- Cathy Hawkins

LifeWay Bookstore/Sale Tables

Want to do some early Christmas shopping? The LifeWay Store will be open during our conference with books and gift items. Dr. Chapman will have a sale table with a variety of his books, and we will have numerous NCBSA sale items (including new and clearance items at great prices).

Don't forget, we need helping hands to man the tables. Call Angela Cockerham if you want to volunteer.

Tuesday Night Banquet & Pajama Party

Banquet

Pretty place settings, delicious food, and great conversation around the table ... these are just some of the things that make for a festive evening together. Oh, did I mention great service? The Blackburn Baptist youth group will be on hand to serve tables. All tips will go toward their missions program. Want to help with the table decorations? Then sign up for "Decorating on a Theme" led by CeCi Hughett! She and her "Calvary crew" have been hard at work creating centerpieces that can be purchased, as well as putting together table settings that rock!

Pajama Party

Many of last year's evaluation responses indicate you love to have a good time and enjoy the light-hearted part of our conferences. After reading your responses, the officers decided to host a pajama party, following the Tuesday night banquet.

Although dressing in pajamas is not required to attend, we encourage each of you to participate. A prize will be awarded to the person with the "silliest" PJ's. However, remember to dress modestly, as there may be a few men present. (No birthday suits allowed!)

We'll have games and activities, good fellowship, and munchies! We have planned two separate activities for your enjoyment during the pajama party - a "Who's Who?" picture guessing game and a silent auction. Hand-crafted items will be auctioned, and all proceeds will go to the NC School for the Deaf. Come prepared to have fun, engage in a little light-hearted competition, and support a good cause.

Preview of Breakout Sessions

After reviewing the following listings, indicate the sessions you want to attend by completing the Breakout Schedule found on page 6, and mail with your registration to Cathy Hawkins.

SPIRITUAL ENRICHMENT

Wade Dellinger

“Why Bad Things Happen to Good People”

Ever wonder just what to say to a friend or church member who has just experienced an unwanted divorce, the loss of a child, or the death of a family member to cancer? Unfortunately, good people are not exempt from unexplained or tragic situations. Dr. Dellinger, having written his doctorate thesis on the subject, is just the person to help set some of our questions to rest. His insight and helpful suggestions for communicating love to people who are hurting, will certainly prove to be beneficial.

Ruby Fulbright

“Listening for God’s Call”

Calling is one of the great mysteries of the Christian life. You may have heard God’s call in the quiet corners of your mind and heart. You may have heard Him so profoundly that there was no mistaking His guidance. At other times, you may have cried out to hear from Him, but you just didn’t or couldn’t hear. Join Ruby as together we learn more about “Listening for God’s Call”.

Tara Furman

“Organizing Your Prayer Closet”

Get your supplies ready to revamp your prayer time! This class will help revive a stale prayer life for those who desire to grow closer to Jesus.

“Listening For God’s Voice”

Learn how to hear God speaking to you personally in your quiet time through Christian meditation. You will learn how hearing His voice brings refreshment to your everyday life.

Martha McDowell/Sherry Kluttz

“That’s Not What I Meant!”

Are you often misunderstood or continually sticking your foot in your mouth? We know words are powerful, whether used as tools of encouragement or weapons of destruction. Come join us for a “lively” discussion (about not only what we say, but how to say it) as we laugh at ourselves while developing our silver tongues.

David Moore

“I Am More Than a Computer Wizard: Me, a Minister?!”

We’ll explore and reflect on living into all that God has created and intended YOU to be, which is far more than your title and function.

Haven Parrott

“Dear Abby’s Advice for Living with a Fool”

Is there a fool in your life? Someone who doesn’t fear the Lord, who says in his/her heart, “there is no God” (Ps. 14:1)? Where can a believer get help for loving and living with her fool? From Dear Abby, of course! Not Abigail Van Buren, the advice columnist, but Abigail of Carmel, whose story (1 Samuel 25) reminds us that living with a fool doesn’t disqualify us for Kingdom service; in fact, living with a fool may actually define our Kingdom service!

Rodney Stilwell

“From Misery to Ministry”

Focusing on 2 Corinthians 1:3-4, our session begins by watching a worn-out scrap of clay be re-formed into a vessel on a potter’s wheel.

This will provide the backdrop for listening to God speak about our lives. We will draw from His grace as we reflect on our hurts, habits, and hang-ups. Midway in session, we will go from listening to the hands-on making of a pinch pot. Our testimonies of “misery to ministry” will be reflected in the creations that have been transformed from “pieces to pots.”

Kerry & Joy Reeves

“What is God’s Call on Your Life?”

Are you confused about how to know what God is calling you to do? Are you discontent and unsettled, yet you do not know what God would have you to do differently? There are Biblical principles that can help you find what it is God is calling you to do in your career, your ministry, your family, and your life. Let us share with you how God revealed His plan for us to surrender everything to Him to go to the foreign mission field. There is no greater peace than understanding God’s plan for your life.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Kay Bissette

“What’s There For Me?”

Discover the many resources and services just for YOU at the Baptist State Convention. These resources and services include items like Guidestone, that benefit you and/or your family. Personal training, retreats, and inspirational events will benefit both you and your church. There’s also resources to help you grow professionally, like this organization. And of course, the many resources for the church, such as clip art for your newsletter/bulletin; materials and events. Don’t miss this opportunity to discover, “The Baptist State Convention is there for ME!”

Kay Tatum

“Word 2007 – The New Look! “

How to customize the Word Quick Access toolbar; New Menu; Ribbons; and New Formatting Features

“Word 2007 – Advanced Features”

Mail Merge; Pictures/Clip Art/SmartArt; and Headers/Footers

“PowerPoint 2003 Presentations”

Creating a New Presentation; Using Themes; Animation; and Slide Show

Scott Crockett

“Publications: Speaking in Print”

What are you saying between the lines of your publications? Our written words say a lot about who we are and what we are all about. Come learn how to best convey a positive message in print.

Gaylon Moss

“Don’t forget your toothbrush!”

Volunteer Missions Preparation: How to show up, survive and make it home from a mission trip.

Larry Jones

“The Mission Field in Our Midst: Your Church Reaching the Military in North Carolina”

This session will help participants identify the “white unto harvest” opportunity for ministry to the military and their families in all of North Carolina’s counties. Attendees will also be able to explore some specific ways their churches can develop outreach to this special group in the state during a time when support is so vital to those who serve our country.

Bobbie Furr

“There’s No Business Like Church Business”

Discussion of proper compensation packages for ministers, preparing 1099’s, and easy ways to implement good internal controls.

“Show Me The Money and How to Record It As A Contribution”

We’ll talk about designated contributions, mission trips, building funds, columbarium funds, and regular church giving; suggestions about tracking designated giving in a systematic system and how to prepare proper schedules for an audit.

“If Women Really Control the World’s Wealth – How Should I Manage The Part I Control?”

Learn some common sense ways to manage your money. Includes easy budgeting, credit cards, purchasing cars, home closing statements, education planning for children, retirement planning, assisting children with managing money through their allowances, and a little advice about individual income tax preparation.

Johnny Ross

“403(b) Retirement Regulations: Is Your Church in Compliance?”

The IRS recently published new regulations that affect all church and association retirement plans. These regulations must be in place by January 1, 2009. This conference will provide an explanation of these regulations and resources to help your church/association move toward compliance with the new regulations.

PERSONAL EFFECTIVENESS

Wayne Oakes

“Discovering How Others Misunderstand You.”

This presentation is based on a model developed by Dr. Dennis Burton and Wayne Oakes. It looks at what we bring into any relationship, and how we can influence that relationship toward success or failure.

Kerry & Joy Reeves

“Why Don’t I Crave Broccoli and Brussels Sprouts?”

Understanding how God created our bodies to digest and use foods can help lead to easy, healthy eating habits that eliminate cravings and binge eating. God created us perfectly, and if we understand the science behind the way God designed us, we are better equipped to live the life He designed us to live. So come learn how to eat the things you like to eat, and yet be healthier doing it.

“Healthy Living on the Go”

Work, school, church, ball games, kids, grandkids, and about 327 other activities we participate in each day keep us on the run. So how can we find the time to eat right and exercise when we barely have time to do the things we are doing now? There are ways to avoid the traps of fast food, frozen dinners, and convenience store breakfasts even in a busy lifestyle. Learning tips to Healthy Living on the Go can make being a good steward of our health easier than you may think.

Teresa Almond

~ Café Chatter ~ “I Know You Hear Me ... But Are You Listening?!”

“Relax, unwind, slow down, mellow out, hang loose, chill,” are just a few of the things we will do during our Café breakout session. Come by and enjoy a soothing cup of “joe” as we kickback and take it easy, spending time together exploring the art of listening, as opposed to just hearing.

Crystal Dula

“Time For A Healthy YOU”

This session will focus on many aspects of women’s health – from mammograms to pap smears, and from skin screenings to colon screenings. The one question posed will be, “Do you have time for a Healthy You?” The session will be light-hearted and fun, but will help women understand the need to stay healthy with regular screenings and exams.

Ceci Hughett

Decorating On A Theme

Come join Ceci in creating some decorations for the next church social, a committee meeting, deacon’s luncheon or holiday decorations for the church lobby. And yes, even Tuesday Night’s Banquet. She’ll show you creative ideas to make your church setting more inviting to members and guests.

Eddie Thompson

“Family Shock! Keeping Your Family Strong in a Crazy World”

If you are feeling the stress and strain of keeping your marriage or family together, you are not alone. In a very real way, the American family is currently undergoing the greatest amount of brokenness it’s ever experienced. It has been stated that family issues have become our #1 felt need. This session will help us consider what it will take to keep your family strong and healthy – even in the toughest of times.

Johnny Ross

“Will You be Ready for Retirement When That Day Comes?”

Time passes so rapidly!! Will you be ready for retirement when your last day of work comes? Unfortunately, many people are not ready financially because of little or no planning. This session will provide an update and explanation of why every paid church employee (including all secretaries and ministry assistants) should be an active participant in the Church Retirement Plan, which is the BEST retirement plan on the market today for church employees.

BONUS: Johnny Ross

“What are the Retirement Mutual Fund Options Available to Me?; How Do I Make Wise Decisions Regarding My Fund Choices?”

This session will describe the multiple mutual fund choices from which a retirement participant may choose and will explain what principles are involved in determining an appropriate asset allocation of those funds at various stages/ages of our working life, until we retire.

BONUS: Kerry & Joy Reeves

Fit 4 A King: One-on-One Consultations

Want help with your personalized plan? Let Dr. Reeves and Joy answer any of your specific questions regarding your own eating, exercise, or devotional plan.
