NCBSA Conference November 5-7, 2012 Ridgecrest Conference Center

What are you wild about? Do you like to do things spontaneously? The theme this year for our conference is “Wild About Jesus.” The dictionary defines wild as lacking supervision or restraint. We encourage you to attend the conference where we will be guided to show our “Wild” love for Jesus to others.

Our conference speaker is Phyllis Elliott Elvington and she is definitely “Wild about Jesus.” Phyllis received her B.A. degree in elementary education from the University of South Carolina at Coastal Carolina College. She taught second grade, kindergarten, and gifted/talented classes at Green Sea Floyds Elementary prior to serving Horry County Schools as a part-time teacher evaluator. In 1985, when teaching full-time, she was honored by being named HCS Teacher of the Year.

Phyllis is active in service to her Lord at the church, associational, and state levels. She has served on the Board of Directors of the N.C. Baptist Foundation and on the General Board of the N.C. Baptist State Convention.

Phyllis’ energetic, uplifting, and well-prepared style may have you laughing in the aisles one minute and your heart on its knees the next. From associational meetings to ministers’ wives retreats, senior adult conferences to prayer retreats, Phyllis stays quite busy.

We encourage everyone to register and send Drema Hill the Sessions you plan to attend. This will help our leaders prepare so you will have an enjoyable experience. Thank you for the continued prayers as the Executive Committee makes plans for the upcoming conference. We look forward to seeing you at Ridgecrest!

Door Prizes

Door Prizes are so much fun to give and receive. We all love to hear our name called!

We are asking each Association Office to bring one or more gifts, if they are able. Thank you in advance for your thoughtfulness!

Mission Project: Benevolence Fund at Wake Forest Baptist Hospital

After much consideration of several worthy causes, we decided to make the NC Baptist Hospital the recipient of our mission funds this year. One big reason for this decision was the fact that this hospital serves those from all over our state, not just one local area.

As Baptists, you may be aware that there is a benevolence fund at Baptist Hospital to assist those in need with their hospital bills. This fund brings the compassion of Christ to those who suffer. You can make a life changing and eternal difference.

Every cent of every dollar you give to this benevolent ministry helps patients pay their hospital bills in the name of Jesus Christ and His love.

These individuals are conscientious, hard working people thrown into crisis by serious illness. They make too much to qualify for government help but not nearly enough to pay their hospital bills. Financial counselors carefully screen them.

I have personally served on the committee that distributes these funds. We were very careful; as I am sure the current committee is at determining who gets help and how much each recipient receives.

Authentic Prayer

I knelt to pray when day was done,
And prayed, "O Lord, bless everyone;
Lift from each saddened heart the pain
And let the sick be well again."
And then I awoke another day
An carelessly went on my way.

The whole day long I did not try
To wipe a tear from any eye;
I did not try to share the load
Of any brother on the road;
I did not even go to see
The sick man just next door to me.

Yet once again when day was done,
I prayed, "O Lord, bless everyone."
But as I prayed, into my ear
There came a voice that whispered clear,
"Pause, hypocrite, before you pray;
Whom have you tried to bless today?"

God's sweetest blessings always go
By hands that serve Him here below."
And then I hid my face and cried,
"Forgive me, Lord, for I have lied;
Let me live another day,
And I will live the way I pray."

Betty Walker Endowment Fund

The North Carolina Baptist Secretaries Association was founded in 1982 by Betty Walker, secretary at FBC of Burlington. Her dream was for the church secretaries to have opportunities for professional development, emotional support, and spiritual motivation.

Thanks to your generosity, this fund continues to offer financial support to our organization. An envelope will be available for you at the conference. You may also consider taking your envelope home and sending your donation anytime through out the year, as you are led. Thank You!

The North Carolina Baptist Secretaries Association is the key to personal growth, education, motivation, professionalism, and ministry.

Continue To Say A Prayer . . .

Please continue to be in prayer for your executive committee. We are hard at work planning our fall conference. Also be praying for our speaker; musicians; those who will lead sessions; and everyone who will be attending. May the Lord receive all praise, honor, and glory for what is accomplished.

Preview of Breakout Sessions

After reviewing the following listings, indicate the sessions you want to attend by completing the Breakout Schedule found on the back, and mail with your registration to Grace Hodge.

Spiritual Enrichment

Sheila Berry, Writer, Speaker, Admin. Asst. at FBC of Clyde

- "A Christian Ladies Wardrobe, part 1"
- "A Christian Ladies Wardrobe, part 2"

Isaiah 61:10 (NIV)- I delight greatly in the Lord; my soul rejoices in my God. For He has clothed me with garments of salvation and arrayed me in a robe of His righteousness, as a bridegroom adorns his head like a priest, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels."

God is the great Fashion Designer of His daughters. How does He clothe each of us uniquely? What type of temperament did God create within us? How do we "cooperate" with God in improving/expanding our own particular spiritual wardrobe? How should we get dressed each morning? Does it affect our wardrobe? "What about Thrift Store Shopping"? We'll have fun and an interesting time with plenty of involvement in both breakout sessions.

Dr. Mike Collier, Pastor Jersey Baptist Church

- "Courageous About Jesus: Fighting for your family"

Our homes are under intense pressure and will become casualties unless we each answer the call to stand and fight for them.

- "Courageous About Jesus: What Matters Most"

It takes courage to be different and to have your life set apart according to a different (higher) standard.

- "Courageous About Jesus: Impacting Future Generations"

It takes courage to choose to leave a Christian legacy that will still matter for many generations to come. The hit movie "Courageous" and Third Day's song is targeted at men. So women will ask, "What's in this for me?" As a mom and a grand mom, you have a direct hand in raising sons who will one day be fathers as well as raising daughters who will one day choose a man to marry who will serve as father to her children. You have (had) a father, and you know the effect that either his presence or his absence has had in your life. "Courageous" helps you to unpack the relationship you have with your own dad but also an opportunity for you to draw closer to your Heavenly Father.

Marty Dupree, Sr. Consultant, Team Leader Evangelism & Church Growth Team, Baptist State Convention

- "Evangelism Crash Course"

Lots of stories and illustrations provide individuals' ideas on how to 1) Engage a spiritual conversation 2) Share the basics of a Gospel presentation with a tract or an EvangeCube. Users can even write their own tract or Gospel presentation. 3) Share the Roman Road in an interactive way, or 4) Share their personal testimony

Martha McDowell, Professional Speaker

- "How Being Wild Keeps Me Calm" To CHANGE to 2012 info
- How as ministry assistants, the greater our personal thankfulness, dependence, and praise regardless of our circumstances and even chaos around us, the more we can experience His peace.

Becky Myers, Bible Study Teacher

- "Wild About JESUS! Am I Really?"

Am I really wild about my Lord Jesus? If so, why?...and how can I deepen that relationship even further? Do I sometimes wish I had

More zeal for the One Who died for me? How do I get wild about my Lord? In this workshop we will delve into God's Word to discover how we can deepen our relationship with our Lord Jesus to other extent that we can truly say, "I am wild about Jesus!" We will seek answers to the above questions as well as others you may have.

Professional Development

Teresa Almond, Ministry Asst., Glorieta Baptist Church

- "The Jungle"

Webster's definition of "wild" is to be passionately eager or enthusiastic... AM I? Are we? Is Anybody? When we stop and think of the phrase "Wild About Jesus", what exactly does this mean? As I read the Spring, 2012 NCBSA newsletter and the first paragraph asked, "If you're feeling like you're in a rut, doing the same things day after day, then make plans to attend our next conference," I thought Wow~ "am I in a rut, am I complacent?", probably, but I don't want to be... I want to daily cry, "Hosanna in the Highest!" Come on by the "The Jungle" as we herd together for some fun, heart to heart sharing and praising the Lord!

Darlene Das, Executive Director of 'Today's Etiquette'

- "How Do You Rate Your First Impression"

Would you like to outclass your competition and have fun doing it? In today's fiercely competitive business arenas, etiquette and protocol intelligence will distinguish you from the crowd. It gives you an edge that will make the difference between you and another person who is just as smart, but not as polished. In this workshop we will cover several topics: Dressed for Success, Great Introductions, and Office Space Etiquette.

- "The Do's and Don'ts on Entertaining"

Come learn the proper steps in social entertaining and daily public interactions with others. With a refreshing, unfussy approach, you will easily grasp the principles of knowing what to do in all sorts of situations, and that builds the confidence that's needed to succeed!

Angela Dupree, First Baptist Church or Garner

- "Discipling Your Children To Be On Mission"

We will cover the power of prayer, purposeful traditions, your power source, foundational plans for success, identity based in Christ, bearing spiritual fruit (missions for the generations) – all for the ultimate goal to Glorify God!

Lynn Johnson, Retired-Raleigh Baptist Association

- "Beyond the Written Job Description of Association Secretaries"

We will be sharing ministry ideas giving your association creative ways to train and minister. How you can handle the diversity of every phone call and request that comes through your office.

Diane Rowell, Secretary at Central Baptist in Kannapolis

- "Do You Use Creative Writing to Express Yourself?"

Ezekiel 17:1 tells us to "...tell this story to the people..." God still uses people like you and me to guide and challenge those who need a work of encouragement. Many times we just need someone to remind us of how much God loves us. Writing is one of the most rewarding, enjoyable, and satisfying past-times imaginable; and it's something that can be enjoyed by anyone, no matter how much writing experience you have. The best thing about creative writing is the fact that you can write based on your emotions and thoughts. The more in touch you are with your feelings and ideas, the more creative you can write. Being creative can be difficult and challenging at times but immensely fun. When we balance what's happening inside of us with what's happening outside, we can, through God's help touch people's lives.

Phil Stone, Church Administrator, BSCNC
